Christine L.

Assistant Public Defender - Expert Testimony Case

I had a fantastic experience in a Johnson resentencing last week where the PO had originally recommended an upward variance from the non-ACCA guideline based on my client's institutional (mis)conduct over the last decade. These guys helped evaluate all the BOP records and explain how the PO actually had no idea what he was talking about (which the PO ended up essentially agreeing with on the stand). In the end my client got the very bottom of the new guideline rather than any kind of upward variance.

Mother Of Incarcerated Inmate - Movement From US Penitentiary To Medium

Oh god, the hope is overwhelming. Chris told me that his counselor told him last week that he put in for a transfer for Chris. In the past he had said that he couldn't due to Chris's long sentence so this was new.

I am so hopeful that this will happen soon. I can't tell you how much I appreciate your continued attention. I know that you have new work and diversions and that this has been going on for a long time.

Thank you so much!

CNBC Business News Senior Producer - Prisonology consulting project to get filming inside of a federal prison

I can't resist interrupting your vacation to let you know that we just completed two days of videotaping inside a federal prison camp. It still seems amazing to say those words, but yes, inside a federal prison - and thanks largely to you. You gave us the playbook and supplied us with the institutional knowledge we needed in order to make sure that we conveyed our request in the most effective and convincing way possible. And it worked - astounding.

Mother who wanted to have her son transferred closer to home

Hearing about you from Dianne gave us our first glimmers of hope that our son David might be transferred to Englewood. Now that he's there, he thanks you for your efforts and our whole family thanks you, too!

Rabbi W.

Rabbi who wanted help expunging a incident report on an inmate ... allowed for a transfer

Good news! The warden responded this morning that he will expunge the shot regarding the phone issue! Thank you so so much for your incredible help with that! This inmate was actually just diagnosed with cancer and so I am especially happy for him and his family.
